

The Parrot

Your ARC newsletter by and for ESL, multicultural, international students, new Californians, and, well, anybody really...

Issue # Special

Spring 2012

Students Occupy Parrot – Administration Expects Long-Term Battle

ARC students are reputed to have occupied The Parrot office to protest the fact that 99% of the campus does not receive The Parrot and must scratch and claw to get their hands on a hard copy.

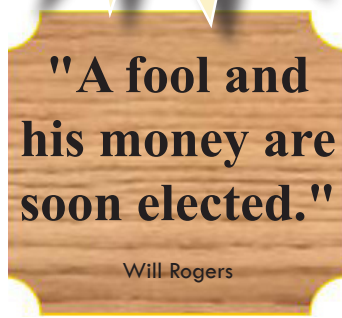

To date there is no film footage of the occupation and reporters for The Current are at their wit's end trying to locate the cubicle that passes for The Parrot office. Estimates of the number of occupiers range from three non-descript student-types to thousands of agitated “dissidents” wearing The Parrot t-shirts.

Spring Break Declared Unconstitutional!
Page 1

"A fool and his money are soon elected."

Will Rogers

NBA Sensation Jeremy Lin to Attend ARC for Summer Session

New York Knick point guard and California native Jeremy Lin has announced that he will attend ARC in the summer session. Linn did not specify which classes he would take. When asked why return to school and why to California, Lin replied, “You know, a Harvard education in my back pocket is fine – it opens up a few doors -- but for fired up teaching that’ll rock your world you can't beat a CC, and ARC's got game! Besides, the social life in The Big Apple is not all it's cracked up to be. Give me some Sacramento sun and a chance to wear shorts full-time – no can do on 5th Avenue. I also hear ARC's getting a new student center so I'm jazzed about that. Hey, anybody got a couch I can crash on?"

American River College
4700 College Oak Drive
Sacramento, CA 95841
(916) 484-8011

Inside this Issue

Very little, really...